Privacy Policy

This privacy policy is for the Facebook, website or other general contract form you have been asked to complete. Your contact information and brief information collected about your dog will not be shared with any other parties outside of the K9 Rules Training Camp client management system. We don't like it when our information is shared, especially unknowingly, and we assume you might not like it either!

This information will be used by K9 Rules Training Camp staff and contractors to contact you, via phone, email or text, to further discuss the challenges you are having with your dog and your goals for training, so that you and determine if you are interested in working with K9 Rules Training Camp and K9 Rules Training can determine if we are interested in working with you and your dog, and are able to help you.

If we mutual decide to proceed to training, you will receive documents from K9 Rules Training Camp, that may supercede this with additional information

Thanks!
